

Conflicts of Interest Action Team

Our goal is to determine conflicts of interest, corruption, to research, educate, and promote actions on those conflicts that have emerged during the Election of 2016 and the Trump Administration. Ethical issues in the Trump Administration are fluid, requiring constant vigilance and actions.

Making a Difference

1. Know your Members of Congress: program their phone numbers in your phone. Call them with your concerns. Know their positions.
2. Educate yourself about issues: media outlets, Twitter, Facebook, print
3. Engage: attend TownHalls, forums, march, protest, speak out against ethical issues
4. Read the Indivisible Guide. Join Indivisible or an activist group
5. Join and support Public Interest Groups: CREW, Public Citizen, Common Cause
6. Elevator Talk: talk about issues so they are relatable and easy to understand. Talk about cronyism, corruption, self dealing

What you can do now:

Currently there are two bills in Congress, one in the Senate and one in the House of Representatives that call for an Independent Commission. Senator Ben Cardin has proposed S.27 and Representative Eric Swalwell has introduced H.R. 356. Call your MoC's (Members of Congress) to support these bills.
