RED TO BLUE

Conor Lamb is a Marine, a former federal prosecutor, and the Democratic nominee for the March 13th special election in Pennsylvania's 18th Congressional District, located in Southwestern Pennsylvania. Conor's priorities include taking immediate action to fight the heroin crisis, creating and protecting good jobs, making health care more affordable, protecting Medicare and Social Security, and reforming our broken student loan system.

Because the Democratic Party is the only political party, which is putting up effective resistance to President 45, Indivisible Howard County MD will be working to help Democratic candidates win their elections on a local, state and national level. One of the most effective ways to influence an election is to conduct a phone bank asking registered Democratic Party members to vote for a specific candidate. We will be conducting periodic phone banks to help candidates throughout the country win their elections.

IMMIGRATION

Maryland's Role in the Immigration Debate

March 14, 7:00 pm,
Owen Brown
Interfaith Center

The Trump administration's policies have brought on a national debate on immigration that also plays out at the state and local level.

For example, the Maryland General Assembly, which meets through April 9, is considering a half-dozen bills that would have an impact on immigrants in Maryland.

This 75-minute discussion will focus on understanding the terms used in the current immigration debate as well as key bills before the legislature. George Clack, a member of IndivisibleHoCoMD's Immigration Action Team and the editor of "Immigration News," will lead the discussion.

Sponsored by the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Columbia, IndivisibleHoCoMD, and the Unitarian Universalist Legislative Ministry of Maryland.
