This meeting is to report on legislative successes since our January meeting and lay out what we need to do this summer in order to build a blue wave for the November elections. After the meeting there will be an hour for people to meet candidates and ask questions.

ACTIONS

STOP TRUMP'S WAR CABINET

Mike Pompeo's confirmation hearing for Secretary of State in the Senate Foreign Relations Committee could happen as early as Thursday. If confirmed, Mike Pompeo would bring the #TrumpThreatLevel to a new high. He is a warmonger, a climate change denier, and an Islamophobe. If he were to become the face of U.S. foreign policy, he would export Trumpism across the globe, making us all less safe. You can help stop this. If we can get Democrats to stay strong, and vote against Pompeo, we can stop Pompeo from becoming our nation's top diplomat. Call your Senators this week and tell them that they must say no to Pompeo! become law in Maryland, when Hogan chose neither to sign nor veto it. You can read the Sun's article about Hogan's non-veto here.

Congratulations and thank you to everyone who advocated for this bill! Your meetings, calls, letters, emails, and organizing paid off, and beginning in 2019 Maryland will begin automatically registering voters at the MVA, Departments of Social Services, Health Benefits Exchange, and the Mobility Certification Office in the Maryland Transit Administration.

This means we accomplished both of our state legislative priorities this session: we got Election Day Registration on November's ballot and we made automatic voter registration the law of our state. Thanks again for everything you did to expand and protect voting rights in Maryland! And read what nymag has to say about Maryland's new law.
