Winding up the Summer – Keep On Paddling!

After this summer, my head knows how a tennis ball feels – WHACK, change direction, WHACK, change direction, WHACK... Every time I look at the news, another WHACK.

First we get great news to celebrate-- The White House just yesterday announced Student Debt Relief. Then WHACK - we find out more about how our national security was compromised at Mar-AI-Lago. Then WHACK - even more restrictive anti-woman trigger laws go into effect today in Texas. I'm emotionally exhausted with it, and I'm sure you are as well.

Here's the thing: BE ENCOURAGED!

Polls now show Dems gaining and likely to finish up strong for November. We truly have a chance to hold the House and Senate, if we keep working at it.

So, please: Join me and commit to volunteer just a few hours between now and Nov. 8. We just need everyone to do a little, and together we can win this! So let's stick together and KEEP PADDLING a bit longer!
